The Fallen Heroes of Georgia 1K, 5K, and 10K races and festival was held March 19 at Lake Lanier Islands in Flowery Branch to honor America's soldiers who have given their lives in service since September 2001. The Barrow-Jackson Civil Air Patrol Squadron 156 represented the Civil Air Patrol and the U.S. Air Force as volunteers, along with the Georgia Guard (GSDF), the U.S. Marine Corps, and the National Guard.

"We were honored that the organizers of the event gave us the opportunity to serve and honor our deceased veterans," said CAP leader Tim Ledford. "Needless to say, Barrow-Jackson U.S. Air Force Aux.-CAP Squadron #156 looks forward to serving alongside our brothers and sisters in uniform at this event in 2012 and for years to come."

For Olive Anderson, Auburn Elementary School was more than a work place. Anderson taught at the school for many years and served as a volunteer in the library. Her granddaughter, Sue Engle, is a staff member at the school, and many of her great-grandchildren were AES students. When Anderson passed away recently, the family requested money to the school library in lieu of flowers. More than $1,000 worth of new books for the library were purchased as a result.
